Twin-Engine Craft Strikes Hill, Burns; Boys Find Wreck

Stewart Field Planes Are Kept From Scene by Heavy Ceiling; Sheriff, Troopers and Crash Crew Try to Find Wreckage

Rescue crews today moved through heavily wooded country and fog near Middle Ridge Mountain toward the charred ruins of a B-25 medium bomber, believed by authorities to be the one which crashed shortly after 8 p. m. last night in Moonhaw Valley, several miles northwest of West Shokan.

The plane is believed to be one reported overdue at Stewart Field, Newburgh from Westover, Mass., and reports indicated it carried a crew of three.

Parts of two bodies were reported seen in the wreckage by a group of young men who climbed the mountain after some of them had seen the plane crash, explode and burn in the mountain country. The plane was described at Stewart Field as one classified as a medium bomber during the war. It has twin engines and is not considered a large craft among bomber types of today. A crash crew from Mitchel Field went to the mountain late last night to join searching crews lice sub-stations and groups of natives of the West Shokan area in attempts to locate the plane. They were hampered in their efforts by heavy rains, fog and the darkness in the heavily wood-

If You're Male, Stay Out of Beauty Parlors

Albany, N. Y., April 1 (49)-Men still are prohibited from patronizing beauty parlors under New York state lak.

Governor Dewey vetoed yesterday a bill which would have made it legal for hairdressers to cater o male clientele.

However, the governor did sign a bill to allow a woman to fix her daughter's hair. The bill removes home beauty treatments, administered without pay, from bair-dressing and cosmetology licensing

Both measures were sponsored y Republican Assemblywoman, Irs, Genesta Strong of Plandome,

In vetoing the legislation affect-ing the men, Dawey said "the bill would inadvertently result in re-quiring manicurists working in (men's) barber shops to be li-then s) barror snops to be freened as hairdressers."

Mrs. Strong said the bill was designed to eliminate a condition "inadvertently" resulting from the hairdressers' and cosmetologists' licensing law enacted in 1947. The law authorizes beauticians to work on "female" customers only, Dewey noted that under the existing law, "barbers only can treat men and hairdressers only can treat women."

GET-TOUGH POLICY

There is a candidate for President who has been preaching for more than a year that the leaders of both major parties are committed to a policy of "get tough with Russta." Now at last there is some basis for his accusation. But most Americans, except for this candidate and his followers, will doubtless find encouragement in that fact.

The Truman Doctrine was not a get-tough policy. It was a move to save Greece from the imminent danger of communism imposed forcibly by the agents of a tough Russia. It was also a move to save Turkey from the certainty of a similar fate if her neighbor Greece were overcome.

The E.R.P. is not a get-tough policy, either. Originally the Marshall Plan was meant to include Russia and her satellites. The European frend toward mutual military defense, with E.R.P.'s help, is a defensive gesture which arises from Russia's opposition to E.R.P. and continuing aggression.

Neither was the decision to rebuild western Germany and make it an economic unit an example of toughness toward Russia. This, too, was a forced move resulting from Russia's intransigence and insistence on a policy which would amount to America's financing German reparation payments to

But tour recent events have finally given some notice that the U.S. intends to get tough. They are: Mr. Truman's request for selective service; the proposal to return Trieste to Italy: the notice to Italians that there would be no E.R.P. for them if they voted in a Communist government; the decision to leave the American zone of Germany under Army supervision and to keep our forces in Berlin.

These four events do not constitute warwongering. Far from it. The first is simply * move to being our defenses up to peacetime strength. The second and third are attempts to counter a Soviet maneuver before it happens instead of after. The last calls a Soviet bluff,

These moves do not mean war. They simply mean that American policy is becoming focused where formerly it was diffused. The process of focusing is not yet complete. There is still a lot of aimless, time-wasting fuss over things of minor importance. Politics inevitably intrude, Nevertheless, there are signs that this country is becoming determined in a positive way. Problems of diplomacy and defense are being dealt with more as a unit, even though our defenses are by no means secure and our diplomacy still suffers somewhat from confusion and short-sightedness.

The country must basten to build up its military strength. At the same time it can scarcely be denied that the problem is, in the last analysis, diplomatic. Our goal is peace and justice. Our aim is to avoid war, even if we must put ourselves on a wartime footing to do so. To start a war—a so-called preventive war-would be to confess a tragic and complete failure of statesmanship.

TEST OF A PARTY

If Wallace gets 5,000,000 votes, as his followers hope, does this mean the beginning of a new party? Not necessarily, as the history of the last two great third-party movements shows. They prove that the real strength of a party lies not in the votes for the man at discovered early. Send today for 'Dr. Barton's in the top, but in the number of lesser offices and Treatment." To obtain it just send 10 cents and which it controls, Theodore Roosevelt's Progressives in 1912 polled 4.100,000 votes, 700,000 more than President Taft on the Republican ticket, with 88 Reosevelt electors to eight for Taft. Yet the Progressives elected but 19 Congressmen out of 435, and no governors. The Progressive voters were paying a personal tribute to T.R., not forming a new party. This was proved in 1914, when with no Roosevelt at the head of the ticket, the popular vote dropped below 2,000,000, and the congressmen dwindled to seven. In 1916 the party disappeared altogether.

Robert M. La Follette, the elder, polled 1,800,000 votes for president in 1924, carrying his own state of Wisconsin with 13 elec-

VIDEO AND POLITICS

For a year now, we have been looking at a television instrument. Most of the looking is done by the younger members of the family who like fights, wrestling, basketball and the doings of the "Small Fry." Whenever I want to see something, the set kicks up. Either some doctor's diathermy is at work, or an amateur is experimenting, or planes are overhead. We are always having mechanics about the place who leave fingerprints on the walls and woodwork and get paid for it. Certainly, nothing ought to go wrong so often and yet be in such good condition. It is like the doctor who tells the patient he is in prime shape, but the patient drops dead as he leaves the doctor's office.

The other day, I appeared on video and it was beastly ordeal because the lights produce too much heat. Also, nobody told me not to slump in my seat, so when I did, the lights made my middle resemble that of Man-Mountain Dean. However, it was a gay experience, particularly as I said precisely what I wanted to say and the audience could see an attempt made to stop me.

ence could see an attempt made to stop me.

I see by the newspapers that David Sarnoff, who runs the Radio Corporation of America and is a very shrewd hombre, having come up the very hard way, appraises video almost as revolutionary in political consequences. He said:

"We have but to recall the fremendous effect of radio broadcasting upon the social and political life of the nation to look forward to the profound effect which television is certain to have on domertic labits and politics."

Ite is so right about that. Radio made it possible for a lunkhead to read a ghost-written speech, after having had some specialist teach him how to modulate his voice in such a manner that it came over the radio entertainingly. For example, Franklin D. Roosevelt had a perfect radio voice after he had been taught by experts. He never wrote a speech for himself. There used to be bets over who prepared which paragraph. The script was marked up like a musical score. It came over marked up like a musical score. It came over

On the other hand, men like Herbert Hoover or Robert A. Taft do not sound so well on the radio because they have never gone in for voice culture and lancy pauses and suspense and such things. In a word, they speak politics but are not auditioning to become a professional radio announcer who is hired for his voice.

Television will change that, and change it radically. The uninspired face, the fellow with his tongue in his check will be exposed. Sarnoff said:

"He must look into the television camera and speak to the people face to face. His appearance, his smile, his gestures, combined with the sound of his voice to complete the transmission of his personality—and it is that complete personality with which the voter will become acquainted."

For instance, Harry Truman, on television, looks personality—and it is that complete personality with which the voter will become acquainted."

For instance, Harry Truman, on television, looks better than he reads, except when he is doing gymnastics on the dock of a battleship. When he does gymnastics, he looks like an old man showing off to his youngest grandchild. But most of the time, he gives the impression of a sincere man, trying to get along. His words are weak and his voice is awful, but he evokes friendship and sympathy. Nobody can teach that. It is in the personality. It is the result of klieg lights on the subconscious. That is why many movies are spoiled by their stars; they speak of great spiritual purity but, their eyes look as though they had taken too many flings. Make-up cannot change that—but when it comes to actors, most people don't care. For as that comic paper, "The New Yorker," once said, in an effort to confound an argument, an actor on the stage is not obligated to mirror his own life, and vice versa.

actor on the Stage is not obligated to harter its own life, and vice versa.

Anything is superior to the bluffing that radio makes possible. Video will not only change the political picture, but in time many ham commentators will disappear because when the public gets one look at them, it will prefer wrestling. That might save our sanity.

CANCER CELLS

· You may wonder why, with all the time and money spent on trying to find the cause of cancer, that more has not been accomplished as you think of other formerly incurable diseases-tuberculosis, diabetes, pernicious anemia--now under control.

One reason why the cause of cancer is hard to discover is that it is not like these other diseases in its early stage. An individual finds that a mole or sore, present for a number of years, begins to change its appearance or growth, perhaps light indigestion occurs or bleeding occurs from one of the openings of the body. If the patient sees his physician at once, and the physician begins treatment at once or refers the patient to a cancer specialist, the usual methods of treatment — X-ray, radium and surgery — will save life in the great majority of

If the main or basic cause of cancer is not yet known, it is what really is known about cancer that is driving cancer research workers to feel that they will soon learn the cause,

In the "Journal of the American Medical Association," Dr. John J. Morton, University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry, points out that, at first, cancer cells are really normal cells. Something irritates these normal cells, and this irritation causes these normal cells to begin to grow in a disorderly manner.

These irritations may be classified as physical, These irritations may be classified as physical, chemical or biologic in nature. The physical agents or causes of irritation include injury, heat, cold ultraviolet light, X-rays and radium; the chemical agents inorganic, and the more complicated inorganic compounds, internal secretions (digestive and differ juices) and vitamins; the biologic agents are the helminths (worms or parasites), bacteria or germs, and viruses (invisible tiny organisms). It has been definitely shown that human cancers can be caused by these various methods of irrita-

ion. These agents damage but do not destroy the cells. And the outstanding point, learned from the above fact, is that once the irritation starts its work on these normal cells, it continues this work and forms cancer even though the cells receive no further irritation.

Shortage of Coal Will Close Auto Industry and Steel, and May Affect Freight, Passenger Service on Railroads By DAVID LAWRENCE -

day injunction. Such a step is ex-pected to be taken next week. It may be countered by legal moves on the part of Lewis and his union so that a few more days' delay would seem probable.

But if, at the end of next week. an injunction has not beet issued, the Congress of the United States may have to consider the passage at once of remedial legislation. The court injunction, if granted, could order all officers and locals of the miners' union to call the men back to the mines. The in-dividual miners can under the Constitution refrain from heeding the call, but if they are influenced by concerted action of two or more persons connected with the nuners' union, then this would be a violation of the injunction and could be punished by jail sentence upon conviction of charges of contempt of court.

The funds of the union can be The lunds of the union can be impounded and various other restrictions imposed. Official Washington expects Lewis and the union to comply with an injunction but to make an appeal to a highbut to make an appeal to a figurer court, Meanwhile, the court order remains until a fact-finding board, already appointed by the President, makes a report, after which the law says the injunction must be dissolved.

First, of course, the miners,

First, of course, the miners, in an election conducted by the National Labor Relations Board by secret ballot, must vote on the final offer of the employers.

In the end, Congress may get the dispute and consider a legislative remedy. The one most talked about on Capitol Hill is a proposal by Representative Hartley of New Jersey. When the Taft-Hartley bill was under consideration, he tried to get the same measure adopted last year. It would outlaw industry-wide bargaining and nation-wide strike weapons.

The theory is that, when any

There is less than three weeks in which to get coal mining resumed to prevent an industrial catastrophe of major proportions.

President Truman has power under the Taft-Hartley law to direct the Department of Justice to ask the federal courts for an 80-day injunction. Such a step is extended.

Now, however, with a national voising in evidence that can be easily understood by the American people, it would appear that the Senate would pass such a relative proposed shop of miners and a distance of the proposed shop of miners and a distance of production in the mines. torship of production in the mines by a small clique of men with a totalitarian constitution which

There is some suggestion that Lewis knows he cannot go too far in his tactics and will comply with a court order and then sttempt to make a dramatic pro-test against the injunction power contained in the Taft-Hartiey

Law.
The main legal obstacle which may arise next week is the con-tention that Lewis did not order the strike but that the men acted of their own volition and that the law says nobody need work unless he is able and willing. But indi-vidual action is entirely different from concerted action by a union or its local leaders. Certainly the sudden stoppage by work simu-taneously by nearly 400,000 per-sons will not be accepted as an example of mental telepathy induced by no word-of-mouth or written instructions from the leadership of the union, whether in local or regional districts.

The miners' union chief pleaded

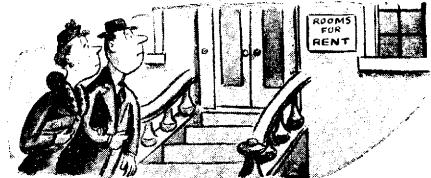

The miners' union chief pleaded last year that he did not call a strike but that the men wouldn't work without a contract. The court made short shrift of that contention. The present law do-s not require proof of a strike call but merely proof that a work stoppage actually exists. The presumption is that workers do not stop work except by concerted acstop work except by concerted ac-tion. For purposes of ordering the work stoppage ended, there is ample machinery available. Like-wise, defiance of a court injunc-tion is not practicable from the union standpoint, so an end of the strike can be achieved in about ten days if the courts interpret the Taft-Hartley Law as Congress in-ightened as to the work of the Industrial Procurement Committee of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday when John H. Haulenbeck, chairman of the committee, addressed the Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon-meeting, Program Chairman Allan L. Hanstein, who has been working with the committee, introduced

In reporting on the work of the committee, Mr. Haulenbeck reviewed its efforts for the past several months, which resulted in visits here by four different concerns each with payrolls of approximately a million dollars a year and employing mostly male help. One of the chief drawbacks was the inability to provide industries with adequate floor space for immediate occupancy. Some industries are not interested in real estate and would rather lease property.

These industries are reputable, which is the only type of concern the committee is striving to secure for Kingston.

The speaker said that there was a possibility of securing one of these industries if housing facilities could be provided. The committee with the aid of local constructions hardened and interesting interests. tractors, hankers and interested citizens has a plan to meet this requirement and has so notified the directors of the industry. The plan calls for a housing corpora-tion, details of which will be an-tion, details of which will be announced.

In view of the proposed decentralization plans of some industries, the completion of the New York State Thruway and the prospects of the erection of the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge, the committee is taking a long-range view on industrial plans for this city.

With the progressive attitude of local citizens and the many advantages offered here, the chairman stated that the committee feels that with continued effort industrial expansion will become

Revolutionary Phonograph Plays Records Vertically

With the claim that it will completely revolutionize the playing of recorded music, the newly developed phonograph pictured above was recently unveiled in Cleveland, Ohio. Its most novel feature is that records are played in a vertical position. They are never turned or dropped. In addition, it holds 200 selections ready for instant playing and will automatically find any record in the Ilbrary, play either one or both sides and return it to storage without anyone's touching any of the recordings, pick-up arm or mechanism. The machine furnishes more than 14 hours of continuous music without ever repeating a single selection. A timer starts it playing at any time desired and ends the program at a predetermined time.

Perhaps the brightest, winter wheat spot is Missouri. A third again as much wheat has been sown in this state as was last year. The fall was ideal for planting and the wheat was away to a good start. The greatest snowfall in years added moisture and a warm covering against the winter winds. But Missouri is primarily a corn state. It is the eighth largest corn producing state in the union, In-dications are that when May rolls around it will substantially increase its acreage in this corpover that of 1947. Prospects for the 1948 corn crop in Missouri are most encouraging. That comes from Tem R. Doug-lass of the Missouri Department of Agriculture. He says richer fields on bottom land farms have been reserved this year for corn. Oklahoma's corn crop likely will be a bit smaller but wet fields may lead farmers to put corn in instead of oats.

There has been little pasturing of livestock on the wheat this spring because of its late start. Consequently most farmers are running low on feed.

One of the things I harp on constantly is counting your tricks, a subject Mrs. Flasher handles well in the hand shown today.

In regard to the opening lead, her simple statement is excellent: "West on lead should lead a heart, since the bidding indicated that the opponents have no losers in that suit, and West may reserve his honor cards in the hope of capturing tricks as the play develops."

Now we come to declarer's problem, and Mrs. Flasher says "South, the declarer, looks over his pros-pects to take home his ten tricks. If he cashed all his hearts and his

If he cashed all his hearts and his spade acc, he would have six tricks. He needs four more, so he must use his trumps separately by ruffing."

Therefore the first trick is won hy declarer with the acc of hearts and a small club is led toward dummy's king. If West plays low, declarer should play the kind from dummy. However, West probably would go up with the acc of clubs and lead another heart. This is won in dummy and the eight of diamonds led toward South's king. East would win this South's king, East would win this trick with the acc and probably

Now see how simple it is to develop the hand into len tricks. Cash the king of clubs, ruff a club, cash the king of diamonds, ruff a diamond, ruff another club, ruff another diamond—all declarer ruff another diamond—all declarer ruff another diamond—all declarer ruff another diamond—all declarer ruff another diamond—all declarer.

Takes Own Coat as Gift

San Francisco, April 1 (AP)-Two fares boarded E. G. Moore's taxicab with a tale of woe. They said they had just been evicted, had no money and would give him his choice of any of the clothes they were carrying in two bundles for a ride to an address they gave. Moore obliged and chose a hand-some coat. When the fares had departed Moore almost jumped out of his cab. The coat was his own. It had been stolen from a cleaning and pressing shop in which he owned an interest. Later Moore pointed out the pair as they emerged from the address they had given. The cops arrested them. But alas, Moore moaned, he was still out the $2 fare.

Capacity Crowd Is Expected for B'nai B'rith Bouts Tonight

This is boxing night at the municipal auditorium and indications are that there will be a capacity attendance for the card sponsored by B'nai B'rith, featuring some of the best amateur ringmen in New York state and Canada.

One change from the original lineup of scraps has been made, in the substitution of Paul Basilo, 112-pound Golden Gloves champion from Canastota, for Carmine Virgilio, Poughkeepsie bantamweight, who is under suspension for not making an appearance before the registration committee of the Metropolitan A.A.U. on demand.

Ben M. Becker, B. B. director of bouts, in making the announcement about the switch to Basilo, predicted that the upstater would put on a more active campaign than the rugged little Poughkeepsian. Reserved seat orders have been pouring in to Dr. Murray Greene, ticket chairman, and comment among fistic fans has been of the' favorable variety that pressages to be postponed on short notice heavy patronage for tonight's will be honored at the door.
